

In 2011, when I was only 9 years old, my family and I jetted off to Mexico in Central America. We stayed there for two weeks in a fantastic five star hotel with a luxurious pool. As I used to love dolphins when I was younger, a dream of mine was to go swimming with dolphins... and I got to do it. The dolphins allowed us to dance with them, give them hugs and also the dolphins kissed us on the head. It was absolutely amazing and I am so lucky I got to do it!
