

In January of 2012, when I was nearly 10, I went to Thailand on a holiday with my family. There was me, my older brother, my mum and my granddad. When I was in Thailand we did so many amazing stuff! My mum and I rode an elephant for about half an hour. It was massive. After all of that, we got an opportunity to feed the elephant bananas. That was probably my highlight of the trip!
