

The rule on chewing gum is a good reason for being banded because it ends up on floor and under tables and all over the school and in the class rooms. But sometimes it helps people to concentrate and not everyone puts their gum under tables and on the floor. I will not chew gum in lessons again because I know it's a banned item. I also will not bring gum into school again.