

I think that the rule about wearing jewellery should be expanded to at least 2 earrings because I had to take my new piercing out to be able to wear at least a ring because you are allowed to wear necklaces and bracelets but you don't get to wear a ring and you're only allowed up to one earring in each ear. At school, you should be allowed to have more earrings and be allowed to wear rings. This is what I think!