

I do not like the rule where you have to sit boy girl because I feel that we should where we want to sit with friends or not and have some sort of choice where they sit. Also I disagree with the no gum rule as some kids work better with gum and it sometimes helps them to concentrate on their work easier. And stops them from looking around the room.