

I really don't like the school rule against gum. As it can basically do no harm. Because you're not technically eating, you're chewing. And a piece of gum can be easily disposed of. All you have to do is make sure no one sticks it under the table secretly. But if there court just make them clean under all of the tables. And another rule I don't like is not being able to talk. But only because I'm basic pro at it.
