

my imaginere stories

lily the very of misty wood once upon a time lived a vary named lily and she woken by the wise wishing owl and when she opened her sparkly blue eyes she saw a beautiful rainbow upon the sky it leaded a gold path lily fallowed. Not that far away in a red castle covered in vines lived a dark vary wanting to capture lily she putted the gold coins there. lily's heading to the old oak tree where the dark vary going to meat and capture lily. lily was in danger. After awhile lily made it to the oak tree nothing was seen around the tree the dark bad vary lily turned around oh no she said the dark vary. laughed i am going to be queen of misty wood. oh no again said lily. then out of no where a prince on his hores came out of no where lily fell on the hores and the dark vary got mad lily was saved she liked the princes at the end lily got married a few years later and the dark vary got stuk up in the moon for enuther 30 moons for jail and they lived hapily ever after in a nice kindom the end upon a wish.