

Parent-Teacher Conferences September 28-29th, 2015

Name: Eden

Teacher: Matthew Kimber

My Strengths:

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● I really like writing stories and I think I am pretty good at it.</li><li>● Everybody says I am good at Math even though I don't like it.</li><li>● I like to play basketball. Once I shot a basket without looking!!!</li></ul>

My Goals:

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● I want to be able to answer times table questions in a few seconds.</li><li>● I want to be able to beat a boy at basketball!</li><li>● I want to become a children/ teen author when I grow up!</li></ul>
---	---

What do I find the most challenging about Grade 5?:

Boys are more annoying than ever and I am in a different class then my BFF's. Other than that grade 5 is super fun and easy!

The most important thing that I would like my parents to know about me, as a learner:

I work a lot better when my mind is clear and I am very calm. If I listen to sounds of nature that clears my mind.
