

My Little Brother

On November 12th 2016, my little brother was born. His name is Blake. He has brown hair and blue eyes. He is very chubby. He has big lips and a small button nose. He definitely looks more like his Dad! He always sleeps through the day, while people come round and see him but at night he will stay up and cry a lot.

In his bedroom, he has a lot of elephant blankets and toys. This is because my mum's favourite animal is an elephant. The room is based on the colours of grey and white because we started to decorate the room before we found out the gender.
