

Milo (My Dog)

Milo is my pet dog, he is 4 years old and he was born on a leap year (29th February 2012). He is a very energetic dog and he is like my little brother. We rescued him because he was treated badly. He is a ginger cocker spaniel with golden eyes however he looks like a cross of Cocker Spaniel and Springer Spaniel. Milo is scared of literally everything but he likes to bark at other animals when we drive past in the car. He likes to play a lot and he even plays with my other pets (Two rabbits and two guinea pigs). He is a very nice and playful dog but when he's tired he is very grumpy.
