

Iqbal Reflection

Reflecting on Iqbal create a google diagram to show the inequality faced by Iqbal, Fatima, Maria and the other children. Please use clear examples from the book. If you have completed your homework this will help.

The children always had blisters on their fingers. YOUCH!!!!

Iqbal was killed on 16 April 1993.

In the story they have to work until sunset and we [as in the GROWNUPS!] Have to work till 5:00pm!

These days people do get murdered just not that often. {At Least not in Vienna} In the book Iqbal got run over by a car. In real life he was murdered.

In the book when they were bad, they were put in the TOMB. Otherwise known as a torcher chamber
