

Drama is an art

It's a way to express yourself through movements or words. Sometimes you use lights or sounds to show a scene but sometimes you can just use words, Drama is the word that describes what acting is. Drama is what makes a good movie, show or theater piece. I learned this by doing this amazing performance!

