- 4. Plan a TV Show

TASK 1: Find the quote you like best.

- 1. Reading gives us someplace to go, when we have to stay where we are.
-unknown
- 2. You can find magic wherever you look. Sit back and relax, all you need is a book. Dr. Seuss
- 3. The more you read the more things you know. The more that you learn the more places you'll go. - Dr. Seuss
- 4. Reading is waste of time, I prefer other hobbies. -Moritz, 13
- 5. It takes two hours to watch a movie, why should I spend weeks on reading the same story? -Leonie, 14
- 6. It's a movie, but it's on paper, and it plays the movie in your head when you look at it. – unknown five-year-old boy

TASK 2: Find out who likes the same quote and talk about the quote.

- Why do you like this quote?
- Why do you like reading? Why not?
- Do you prefer movies? Why?
- What do you prefer – e-readers or real books? Why?

TASK 3: Choose one representative from your group for the TV-show

“What kids say about: reading”

Choose a TV presenter.

The presenter asks the following questions:

- Is reading still up-to-date?
- Do kids read at all?
- Should they be forced to read?
- Should young adult literature be taught at school?
- Movie or book: does it really make a difference?
